

FLOOD DAMAGE MITIGATION: A DECADE AFTER THE GREAT MIDWEST FLOOD OF 1993

PART B: SHAPING FLOOD DAMAGE MITIGATION POLICIES

Organizer: Stuart Davis

“Historical Perspective of Flood Mitigation in the United States.” Dr. Leonard Shabman, Resources for the Future, Washington, DC.

“Evolution of the Corps of Engineers Floodplain Management Activities Since the Great Midwest Flood of 1993.” General Gerald Galloway (ret.), United States Secretary, International Joint Commission, Washington, DC.

“Prospects for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Flood Mitigation Program.” Dr. G. Edward Dickey, Consultant and Professor of Economics, Loyola College in Maryland, Baltimore, Maryland.